

The Cincinnati Waldorf School invites candidates to apply for the following position:

Grade One Teacher

The Cincinnati Waldorf School is seeking a Lead Class Teacher for Grade One for the 2012-13 school year. We value excellent skills in teaching, classroom management, communication, and collegial and parent relationships, as well as depth in spiritual work and understanding of students and their development.

We seek educators who understand and work with the Anthroposophical foundations of the curriculum, bring enthusiasm to build community and participate fully in our rich festival life. We are committed to having experienced, trained, Waldorf teachers. The ideal teacher candidate will have Waldorf training, successful experience working in a Waldorf school, and a commitment to an eight year journey with their class. Our faculty must hold a minimum of a bachelors degree. A Waldorf Teaching Certificate or degree is desired. Student teachers in training are encouraged to apply as well.

The Cincinnati Waldorf School has provided a strong, social education for 37 years and we continue to experience sustained growth and retention. Our current enrollment of over 200 students represents a wide diversity across neighborhood, economics, ethnicity and lifestyle. Our school building is located in an urban setting surrounded by over 20 acres of land including gardens, fields, wetlands, and small woods. Our satellite campus located in Indian Hill, Ohio is a majestic landscape of nearly 100 acres with deep forests, wild life and adjacent neighbors and friends who work a fully functioning organic farm.

Our strong programming includes parent-child classes, pre-school, kindergarten, as well as Grades 1 through 8, Eurythmy, Spanish, Handwork, Spatial Dynamics, Woodwork, and Music. If you are interested, please submit a cover letter and a resume listing background, training, experience, and three references. Call or write Christine Masur, Administrative Team Leader, at 513-541-0220 extension 101 or cmasur@cinciwaldorf.org.

To learn more about CWS, visit us on Facebook or at www.cinciwaldorf.org.